HUMAN LIBRARY

This event is brought to you by the Town of Stratford's Diversity and Inclusion Committee and the Stratford Public Library.

Imagine a library where books are people and reading is a conversation...

The Human Library lends 'human books' to 'readers', providing a safe space for human books to share their stories and have conversations with readers about their diverse life experiences and learn from one another.

Saturday, September 23

2:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Youth Room, Cotton Centre

Browse our "human book titles" and sign out a 'book' of your choice at www.townofstratford.ca.

murmured futures

- a moving poem for hurricanes and how we move forward.

Join our journey of "Murmured Futures" - a poetic exploration of hurricanes & our creative path towards the future.

Stratford Fall Fest is looking for participants, of all ages, interested in creating a singular dynamic event to perform a moving poem.

Please join us!

Saturday, September 23, 2023

1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Robert L. Cotton Memorial Park, 57 Bunbury Road, Stratford, PEI

With a newly created poem from

PEI's Poet Laureate, Tanya Davis,

participants will create a performance with guidance from

Artist Jessica Winton,

drawing from the ongoing efforts of environmental sustainability on the 1st anniversary of the devastation caused by Hurricane Fiona.

This project encourages dynamic communities coalescing around shared concerns, responses to climate change & socio-economic inequalities, managing resources & building more diverse & sustainable lifestyles.
